

JOHN Q. ADAMS BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT.

The following is said to have been the close of Mr. Adams' speech, in the case of the Amistad. It is beautiful and even pathetic:—

"May it please your Honors: On the 7th of February, 1804, now more than 37 years ago, my name was recorded on the rolls of this Court, as one of the Attorneys and Counsellors—that five years afterwards, I appeared before this Court in an important cause. Since that time, I have never appeared before this Court until the present occasion, and now I stand before this Court again. It is this same Court but not these same Judges. At that time these seats were filled by honored men, indeed, but not the same. They are all changed. Then there was Chief Justice Marshall, and Judges Cushing, and Chase, and Washington, and Johnson, and Livingston, and Wild. Where are they? Where is that able statesman and learned lawyer, who was my associate counsel in the case, Robert Goodloe Harper? Where is the eloquent counsellor, so long the pride of Maryland and the American Bar, who was the opposing counsel, Luther Martin? Where is the excellent clerk of that day, whose name has been inscribed on the shores of Africa, as a monument of abhorrence of the African Slave Trade, Elias B. Caldwell? Where is the Marshall? Where are the clerks of the Court? Where is one of the very Judges before whom I commenced my argument in the present case? Gone—gone: all gone. Gone from the services which they rendered to their country, to appear before a tribunal where they must answer for all the deeds done in the body. From the excellent characters which they sustained, so far as I have the means of knowing, I fondly hope that they have gone to receive the rewards of eternal blessedness. In taking, as I suppose, my final leave of this Bar, and of this Honorable Court, I can only ejaculate a fervent petition to Heaven that every member of it may go to his final account with as little to answer for, as these illustrious dead, and that you may every one receive the sentence. 'Well done, good and faithful servants, enter into the joy of our Lord.'"

MILITIA LAW.

To the officers and privates composing the first Brigade, first Division, M. M.

GENTLEMEN: For the purpose of jogging your memories as to your duty, required by the present Militia law of the State, I have thought proper to have the annexed portion of the law published, to which I would respectfully direct your attention, you will remember that your Battalion musters are held in the month of May, and your Regimental musters for the purpose of parade, review, and inspection, in the months of October in each year, drill of officers in September; company officers will be vigilant to enroll the names of each and every man and require his attention on all days of parade within their respective beats, who is above the age of 18 and under the age of 45, those exempt by law will report to the proper officers of companies, who will discharge none except those who produce a legal voucher; all officers both of the staff and line are required to appear on parade in dress uniform and with such other equipments as the law directs; all privates will appear with arms if they have them. By order.

JOHN W. PRICE, Brig. Gen.
Commanding 1st Brig. M. M.
C. F. JACKSON, Aid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Sec. 1. The militia of this State shall rendezvous as follows, viz:

By companies, on the fourth Saturdays in April and September in each year.

By battalions—the first battalion of each regiment on the Friday before the last Saturday in May, and the second battalion on the last Saturday of said month.

The commanding officers of the several brigades shall prescribe the days on which the regimental and extra battalions shall meet in the month of October, annually; also the time of drill of officers in the month of September, in each year, having due regard to the convenience of the brigade inspectors, and shall notify the commanding officer of each regiment and extra battalion of the days on which the same are to be, on or before the first day of August next, whose duty it shall be to notify each commanding officer of companies of the same, on or before the first day of September next, and the days thus prescribed shall be the stated days of regimental, extra battalion and drill musters, from all times afterwards.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of notifying the non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of the several companies to attend the named musters, the commandant of each company shall issue his order to one or more of his non-commissioned officers requiring him or them to notify all persons to attend on the days above prescribed, at some suitable place as near the centre of his command as practicable, and battalion and regimental musters and drill of officers at such place or places as the commandant of the regiment may designate.

Sec. 3. The commandants of regiments shall notify the commissioned officers first of the place, at which the battalion and drill of officers and regimental parades will be held, on or before the first day of April next. He shall, also, cause all field staff officers to be notified of the time and places of mustering for the year 1859.

Sec. 4. No commissioned officer shall be required to notify or cause to be notified any portion of the militia of this State after the year 1859. The first section of this act, which prescribes the days of parade, shall be considered a legal notice to all intents and purposes for all succeeding years.

Sec. 5. Any person failing to attend any of the foregoing parades as required by law, the commandant of each company shall cause him or them to be notified of the court of assessment in the same manner as is now required by law to attend any parade of the militia, and return a true list of all such absentees to the commander of the regiment, on or before the first day of November in each year, whose duty it shall be to lay the same before the regimental court of assessment on the first day of its sitting.

Sec. 6. The commander of each battalion and regiment shall make out a true list of all delinquencies of officers under his command, as well as an account of absence, as for want of equipment, and return the same to the regimental court of assessment, on the first day thereof, in each year.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of each commandant of companies to read or cause to be read so much of this act as relates to the time of the several musters, at each company parade; the several commandants are hereby authorized to take any excuse for delinquencies, if, in his opinion such excuse would acquit said delinquent before a court of assessment.

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE

TRIUMPH,

By Sir Archie.

WILL stand the present season, which has already commenced, at the stable of the undersigned, in Howard County, 4 miles south-west of Fayette, and will be let to mares at the reduced price of $5 the season, which will expire on the 10th of July next.

DESCRIPTION.
TRIUMPH, in seven years old this spring, full sixteen hands high, of an exceedingly gay and lofty appearance, a beautiful sorrel, with a fine head and neck, with shoulders pointing well back, high withers, fine clear limbs, well muscled and heavy quarters; in fine, he combines all those qualities which a good judge requires to make the truly fine horse.

PEDIGREE.

Triumph was got by Sir Archie—he by the celebrated running horse Napoleon, he by old Sir Archie, and he by the imported Diomed; Napoleon's dam was by the old imported Sir Harry, and he by Sir Peter Teazle (unquestionably the best stallion in England) Napoleon's grand-dam by the old imported Dare Devil, his great grand-dam by young Fear-Naught, who was by the imported Fear-Naught out of an imported mare, his g. g. grand-dam by the imported Janus—Young Sir Archie's dam was by the celebrated running horse Madison, who was by the old imported running horse Diomed, out of a mare by the celebrated running horse Chanticleer, he by Wildair, and he by Sir Peter's imported horse Fear-Naught. Madison's grand-dam was by Centinel, his g. g. dam by Claudius, he by Apollo, and he by the old imported Fear-Naught—Triumph's dam (Fanny Lewis) was by Junius, he by the old imported Buzzard. Junius' dam by the imported horse Pantalon, his grand-dam by Regulus, his g. g. grand-dam by old Eclipse, his g. g. grand-dam by the imported Janus. Triumph's g. dam was also by the old imported Buzzard.

$100 Reward!!

RANAWAY from the subscribers, living in Howard county, Mo., the first of February last the following Negroes, viz: DANIEL, REUBEN and KITTY.

DANIEL, is a dark mulatto, aged thirty, about six feet high, stout and muscular, desirous in his address, and it is believed some scars on his face resembling pock marks; he had some excellent clothing, which he is supposed to have with him. His mother and brother live in Illinois, near St. Louis; his wife, a stout mulatto wench, who claims her freedom, went down the river from Booneville, on a steambark, about the first of April, to join her husband in Illinois.

REUBEN is a bright mulatto, about thirty years of age, five feet, six or eight inches high, well made, with a remarkable scar on the back part of his head, making a large naked spot; also a scar made by a shot from a gun, in one of his legs or thighs; he is well acquainted with some negroes taken to the lead mines in Illinois, by Capt. T. Story.

KITTY, Reuben's wife, is of a copper color, about his height, inclined to be spare, 27 or 30 years of age; she is supposed to have gone with her husband.

We will give the above reward for the apprehension and delivery of said negroes, if taken out of the State, or Fifty Dollars for Reuben and his wife, and fifty for Daniel, if taken separately, or a reasonable reward if taken in the State.

Hays' Liniment.

The only true and genuine Recipe, and so declared by the oath of Mr. Solomon Hays, has never been known to any person or persons except to Messrs. Comstock and Co., and they only have the right to prepare the said genuine Liniment, which has established a reputation for effectually curing the Piles in every case, and in all the various stages of the complaint; also Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Sores and Ulcers of long standing. All who have ever used it are highly pleased with its effects, and all who are in need of cure for any of the complaints mentioned, are respectfully requested to ask any one who has ever used it. And we refer with confidence to all who know of the article, and especially to Matthew J. Myers, Esq. Athens, N. Y., and Gen. Duff Green, late of Washington city, all of whom speak in the strongest terms and with the fullest confidence from personal application and knowledge of its positive and never failing cures.

LOOK OUT.

Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of Comstock and Co., that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

Look Out!!

"Caution" is the Parent of Safety. An attack of the "Piles" may be positively prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT. There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most perfect proof.

None genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. written on the wrapper.

Caution Circular.

To Druggists and Country Merchants.

Those valuable articles OLDRIE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA for the Hair, and HAYS' LINIMENT for the Piles, &c. have been extensively counterfeited. Those wanting those preparations, will please always write, when ordering from any other house, for Comstock's articles. The true articles have the name of Comstock and Co. on the wrapper, and vendors will do well to remember that when ordering, as the imitations are so exposed in nearly all the newspapers throughout the country, that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

Our friends throughout the Union are requested to give us immediate notice, by letter, should any of the counterfeits appear in their respective places.

Respectfully,
COMSTOCK & CO.

Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher st., N. Y.

Oldridge's Balm of Columbia.

This article was first introduced into the New York market about 20 years since, and from its superior virtues in reproducing hair when it has fallen out, keeping the head free from dandruff, (a most loathsome article on a gentleman's coat collar,) and giving a softness and beautiful lustre unknown before to the hair, has induced some persons to get up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, none of which stand the test of trial, professing as most of them do, to be oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurious to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no other article will make the hair grow rapidly and of a good quality; but the Balm of Columbia, an article purporting to be the Balm of Columbia, is genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. on the outside wrapper. Some have been deceived and obtained a counterfeit article for the true and genuine Balm of Columbia. Remember to look for the name of Comstock & Co. on the wrapper, before you purchase, and get none but the genuine. Don't be deceived with the assurance that any without the name of Comstock & Co. is made in the same way and is just as good, all such pretensions are false and known to be so by the Counterfeits.

Sold Wholesale and Retail, only at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., by Comstock & Co., and by nearly every storekeeper throughout America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Doctor TALBOT.

To the Bald Headed.

This is to certify, that I have been bald about 20 years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair, and I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case and Co.'s store, who had it from Comstock and Co.

STATE OF MISSOURI,

COUNTY OF RANDOLPH.

In the County Court—February Term, 1841.

NOW at this day John Dyars, administrator of all and singular, the goods and chattels, &c., which were of John M. Collins, dec'd., comes here into Court, and presents his petition representing that the personal estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts, and praying the Court to order the sale of the whole or so much of the real estate as will be sufficient for the payment of the debts, and the petition being accompanied by the lists, inventories, &c., required by law, it is ordered by the Court that all persons interested in said estate, be notified that the application aforesaid has been made and that unless the contrary be shown to this Court, on the first day of the next Term of this Court—an order will be made requiring the administrator to make sale of the real estate aforesaid, and it is further ordered that the administrator cause a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper printed in this State for six weeks.

THE Boston Notion.

IS NOW THE LARGEST, CHEAPEST, AND MOST UNEXCEPTIONABLE FAMILY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN AMERICA! ENJOYING THE UNPARALLELED WEEKLY CIRCULATION OF NEAR

25,000 copies.

A new Prospectus or detail of the character of the BOSTON NOTION, at the present time, would be almost superfluous and idle, were it not that several interesting and valuable features have been and are about to be added to its heretofore valuable columns. The NOTION, ever since it was first ushered into existence, has always been prompt in procuring, at great expense, and republishing the most valuable of AMERICAN AND FOREIGN LITERATURE. The best articles of the periodical press of both countries are speedily transferred to its immense columns. Among the number may be mentioned the North American Review, the New York Review, the Southern Literary Messenger, the Knickerbocker, the Ladies' Companion, the Ladies' Book, Blackwood's Magazine, Fraser's Magazine, Tait's Edinburgh Magazine, New Monthly Magazine, Metropolitan Magazine, Dublin University Magazine, Bentley's Miscellany, Chambers's Edinburgh Journal, Grant's London Journal, the English Journal, the Irish Penny Journal, &c., &c. Entire Novels, Stories and Sermons from the pens of the most eminent living writers, viz.—Bulwer, Dickens (Boz), Knowles, Colclough, (author of Valentine Vox), James, Ainsworth, Marryat, Mrs. Trollope, Mrs. Norton, Countess of Blessington, Miss Mitford, Mrs. Wilson; Channing, Dickey, Irving, Cooper, Longfellow, Simms, Ingraham, Bryant, Halleck, Mrs. Sigourney, Miss Sedgwick, Miss H. F. Gould, &c., &c., have appeared and will continue to appear in its columns. In brief, each number of the NOTION contains gems of the literature of the world.

Novels, Tales, Romances, Agricultural, Biographies, New Publications, Moral Readings, Prices Current, &c. &c.

forming altogether the MOST UNEXCEPTIONABLE FAMILY NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA.

Besides all the foregoing, the NOTION will hereafter contain the following VALUABLE and INTERESTING

ADDITIONAL FEATURES.

One or more Original Comic Engravings—designed by D. C. JOHNSON, Esq. (the Cruickshank of America), expressly for the NOTION, will appear every week in its columns. Thus at the end of a year, the subscribers to the paper will have nearly one hundred of as comical designs as, we venture to say, can be produced by any artist.—These alone will be worth treble the price of subscription.

The NOTION will also be frequently embellished with other costly and superior Engravings.

The cost for designing and cutting all the Engravings that will appear in the NOTION hereafter, will be about $2,000 per year.

Arrangements have also been made, involving a very heavy expense, for ORIGINAL ARTICLES from the following distinguished AMERICAN AUTHORS, viz:

J. Fenimore Cooper, Esq.—Professor Henry W. Longfellow—W. Gilmore Simms, Esq.—Samuel Woodworth, Esq.—Henry T. Tuckerman, Esq. I. McLean, Esq.—Alfred B. Street, Esq., and others.

Original articles from one or more of the gentlemen named, and others, will appear in each number of the NOTION, involving an expenditure of nearly five thousand dollars per annum.

THREE POPULAR NOVELS are now in the course of publication in its columns, viz:—OLD ST. PAUL'S, by Ainsworth—THE POACHER, by Marryat—and GEORGE ST. GEORGE JULIAN, by the Author of Valentine Vox.

Thus the public will perceive that an additional outlay of about $5,000, will hereafter be expended each year by the introduction of these new features. The proprietor flatters himself, therefore, that it will continue to receive the same unbounded patronage that has thus far been extended to it by a generous public.

The NOTION is now printed in a superior style, on an extra quality paper, manufactured expressly for it.

Specimen numbers will be sent to any who may wish it, by making their desire known to us, free of expense.

Postmasters will do a favor by acting as agents. Back numbers to January 1st, commencing with part first of the above mentioned popular Novels, can be furnished, if desired.

TERMS—$3.00 per year—$2.00 for six months, invariably in advance. Two copies for $5.00. Postmasters or others, remitting twenty dollars, shall have eight copies sent to such persons and places as they may designate, and be entitled to the ninth copy gratis.

THE CHEAPEST AND HANDSOMEST MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD!

ROBERTS' SEMI-MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

FOR TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Is published by the subscriber, on the 1st and 15th of every month. Each number contains 40 large pages, (24 sheets), and is printed in a very superior manner—after the style of Blackwood's Magazine—accompanied with an extra thick cover.

It always contains all the most miscellaneous matter that appears in the Boston Nation, including the popular Romances of OLD ST. PAUL'S, by AINSWORTH, THE POACHER, by MARRYAT, and GEORGE ST. GEORGE JULIAN, by the Author of "Valentine Vox." Also, all the ENGRAVINGS that appear in that paper—together with occasionally a piece of fashionable music. At the end of the year it will comprise a volume of over one thousand pages—a library in itself—and the subscription for a year is only $3.00 and when taken in clubs of Ten, only $1.50! i. e. 10 copies for $15.00.

The first number was published January 15, 1841, and contained part first of the popular Novels mentioned above. All the back Nos. from No. 1 can be furnished.

Postmasters are authorized to receive subscribers for the Magazine.

JORDAN.

THIS distinguished Imported English stallion, has just arrived at this place, where his services will be offered to the breeders of fine stock on liberal terms.

Jordan is of the purest and most fashionable stock of England, his performances upon the English turf, were of the first character, and his size, form, and general appearance, not surpassed by any horse native or imported in America.

We wish the public to call and examine Jordan, feeling assured, that he will come quite up to the most sanguine expectations of all.

His terms, pedigree, and performances, will in a few days be before the public in Bills.
